Global growth is also forecasted to be weaker in the medium-term due to China's structural issues

Meanwhile, countries' fiscal stance has shifted toward inward-looking policy

The inward-looking policies have caused fiscal deficit to remain deeper than pre-COVID

The revenue also registered a solid performance,…

… supported by solid tax and non-tax performance

Source: MoF, BNI OCE

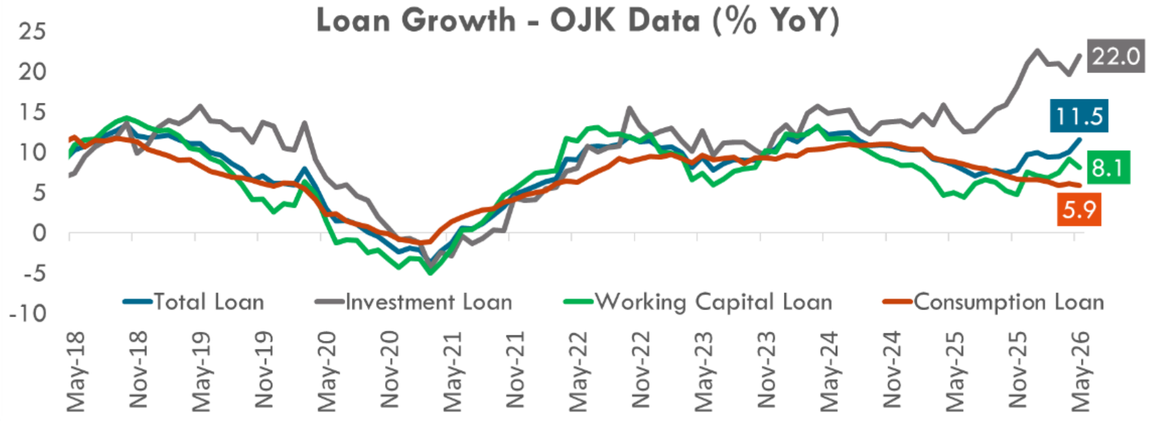

All in all, the solid expenditure and revenue brought the fiscal balance to remain manageable

Source: MoF, BNI OCE

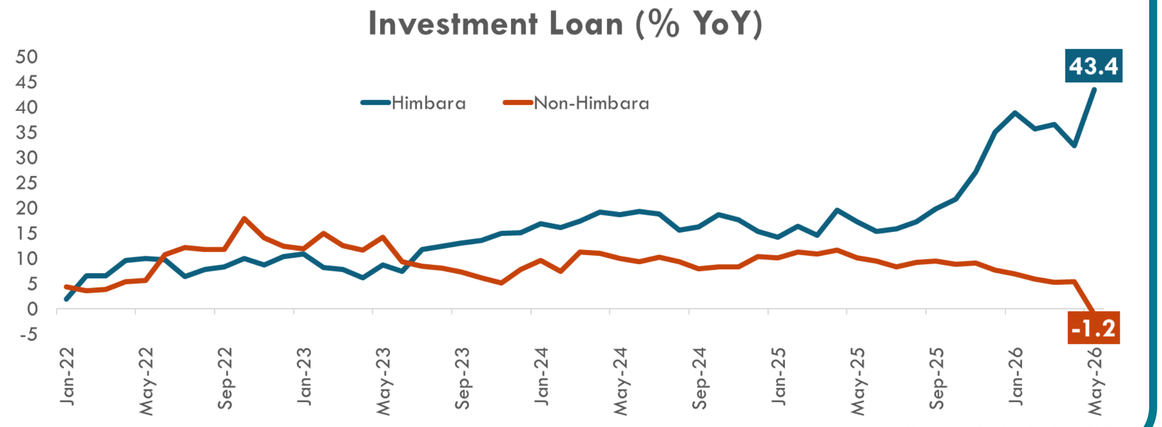

Economic growth has also been supported by loan disbursements from SOE banks

Loan growth touched double-digit figure, supported by robust investment loan

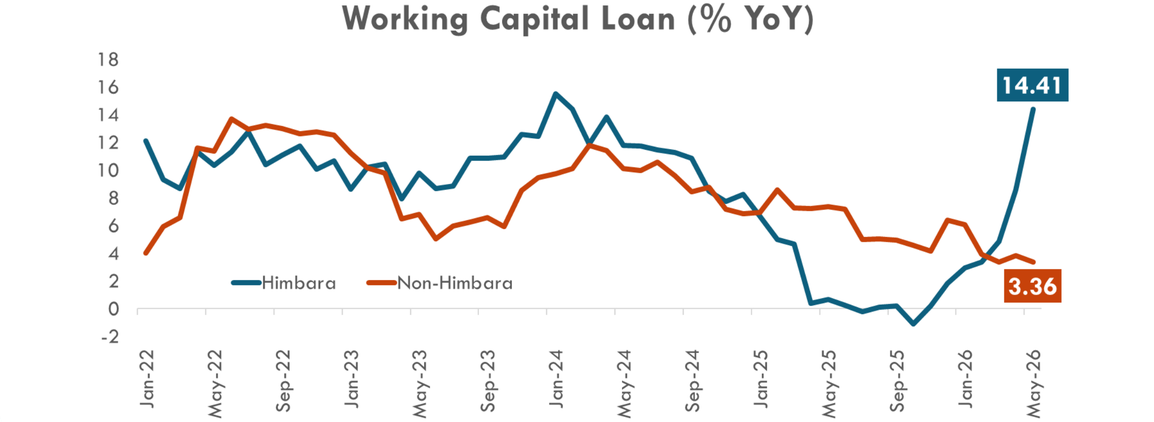

Source: OJK, CEIC, BNI OCE

SoE banks (Himbara) drove the significant investment loan growth

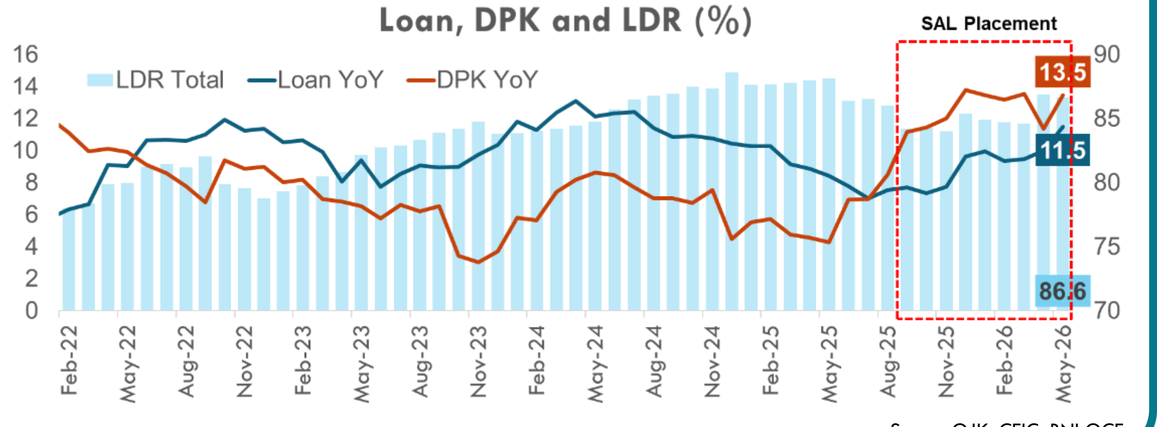

Source: BI, CEIC, BNI OCE

Working capital loan growth was also driven more by Himbara

Furthermore, the solid DPK growth brought the LDR to remain benign at 86.6% as of May-2026

On the other hand, Rupiah has been the main risk due to global volatility

Most of currencies have depreciated YTD, including Rupiah

BI's has been aggressively intervening the FX market to prevent further Rupiah depreciation

BI has raised policy rate to stabilize Rupiah and to manage inflation risk

BI has raised policy rate by 100bps YTD…

…and raised the rate of SRBI 1Y by 278bps

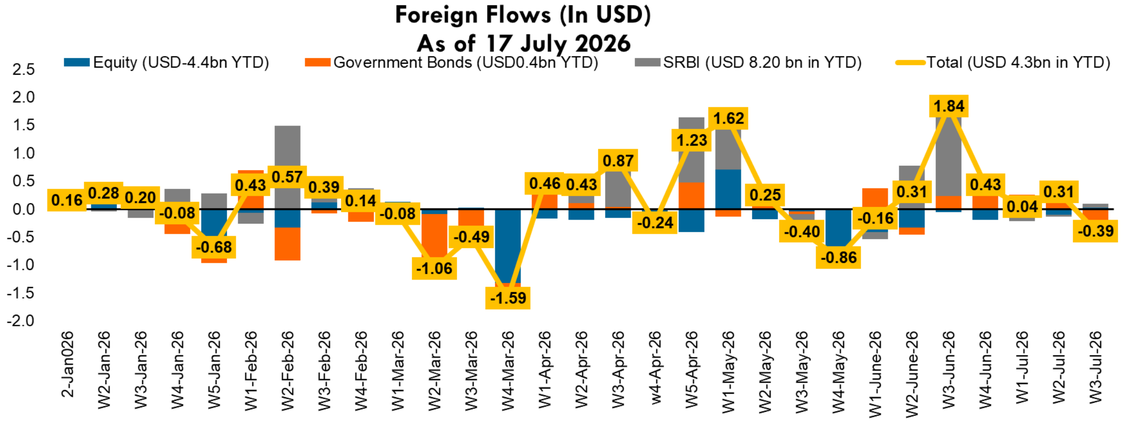

Source: Bloomberg, BNI OCE

BI and the government also agreed to raise the government bond yield to attract foreign inflows

The high SRBI rate prevented significant capital outflow this year

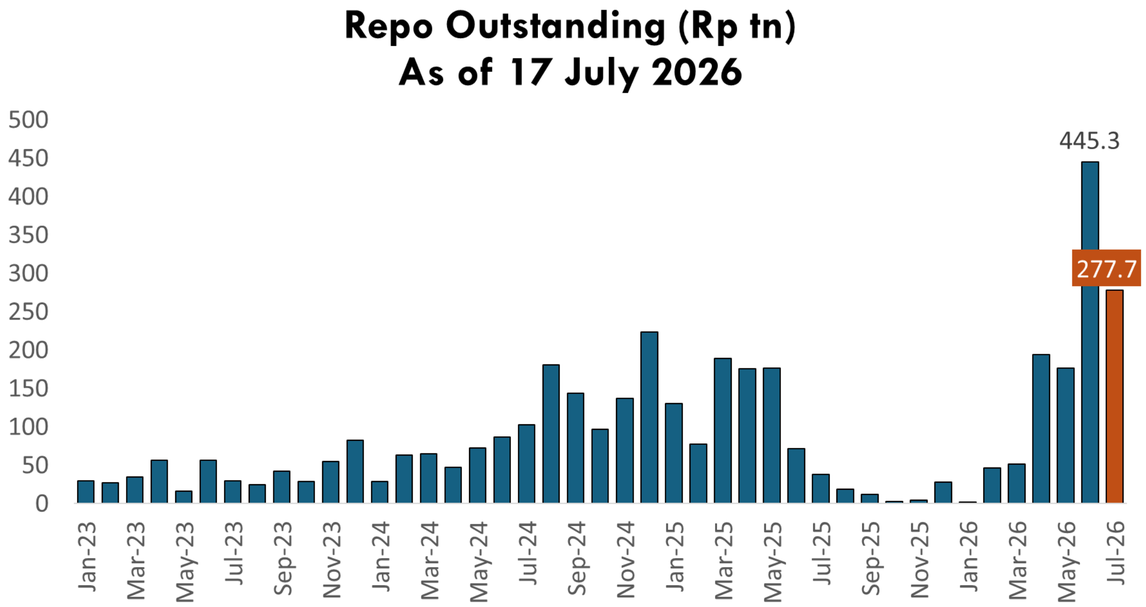

Source: Bloomberg BNI OCE

Source: Bloomberg, BNI OCE

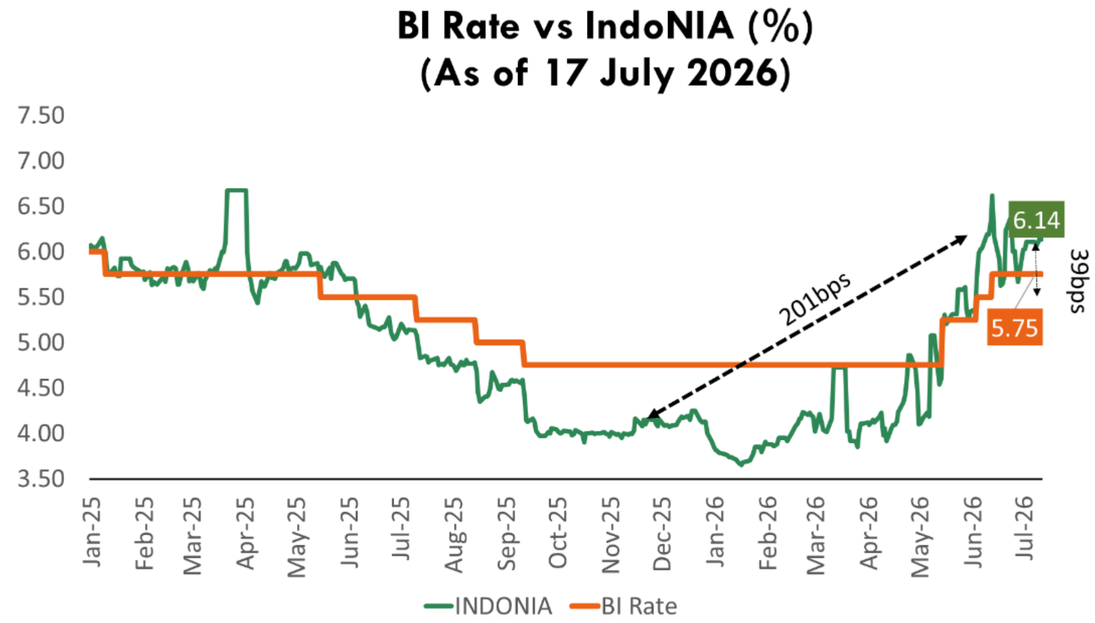

Liquidity has tightened recently

BI has expanded its repo facility to support liquidity for banking sector

Source: BI, BNI OCE

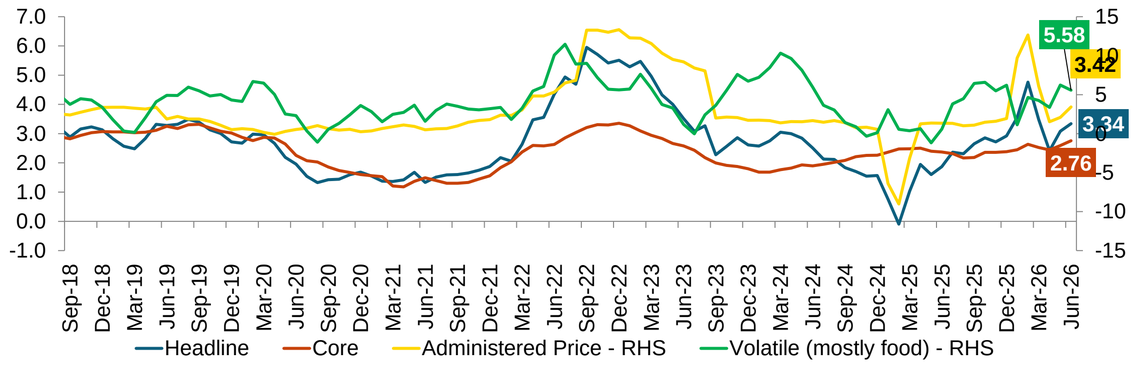

The less ample liquidity situation could be reflected from the higher INDONIA than BI-Rate

Source: Bloomberg, BNI OCE

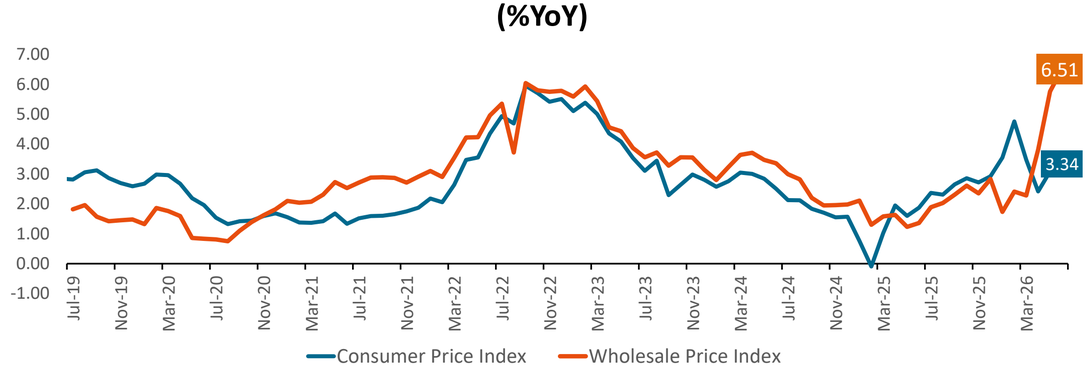

We also need to watch out for higher inflation risk

Indonesia's CPI inflation has reached >3% YoY due to higher food and core inflations

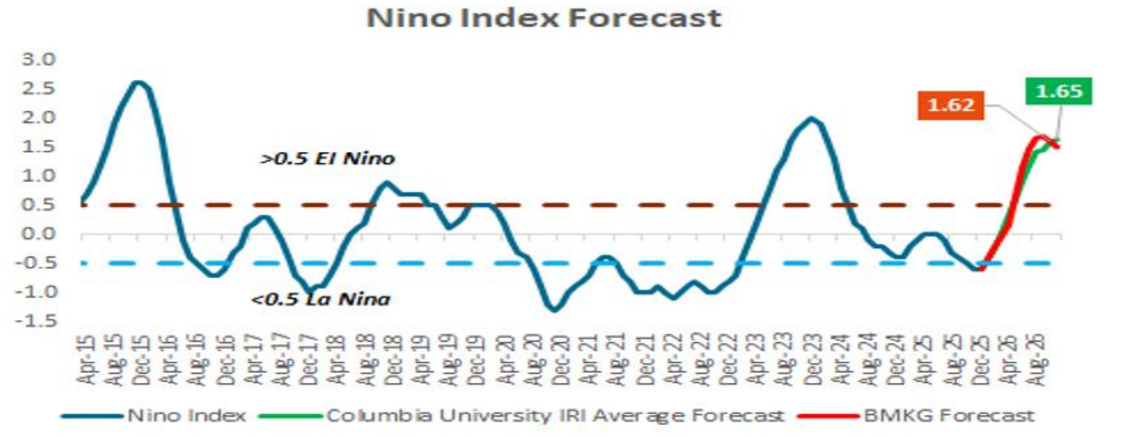

Source: Bloomberg, BNI OCE

WPI inflation has outpaced CPI inflation, suggesting further potential cost pass-through from producer to consumer

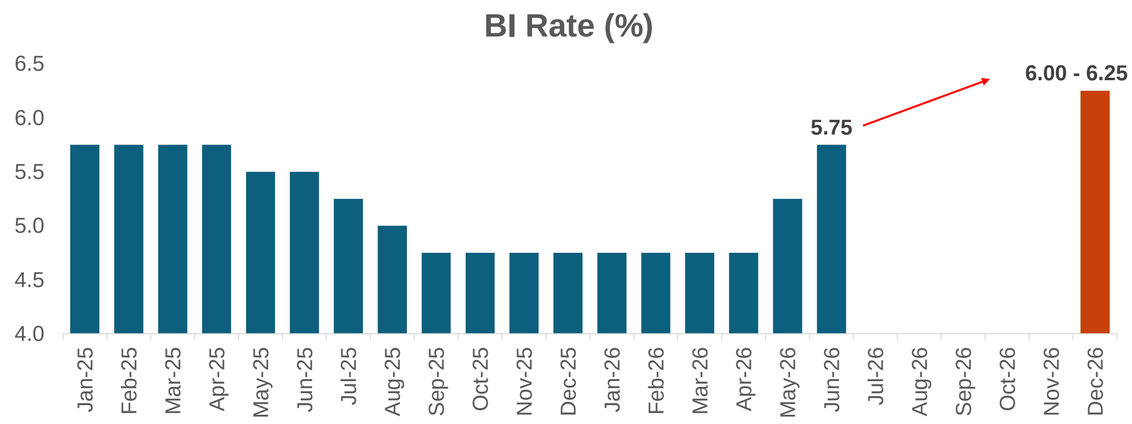

Source: Bloomberg, BNI OCE

We see higher inflation risk due to El-Nino event in 2H26

Source: Bloomberg, BNI OCE

Therefore, combination of inflation and exchange rate risks are expected to push BI raising policy rate further by 25-50 bps in 2H26
